Swami Shankarananda Saraswati

Swami Shankarananda is an acarya in the ongoing long-term course at the Arsha Vidya Gurukulam at Anaikatti. He teaches Sanskrit & Vedanta and conducts guided meditations & Satsangs. He assisted with teaching in the long term Vedanta course taught by Pujya Swamiji and Swami Saksatkrtananda between April 2010 and August 2013 at the Gurukulam.

Swamiji is a disciple of Pujya Sri Swami Dayananda Saraswati. He had the privilege of studying with Pujya Swamiji and his disciples who taught at the Arsha Vidya Gurukulam at Saylorburg for many years. He then attended a three year course in Vedanta and Sanskrit starting 2004 at the Arsha Vijnana Gurukulam in Nagpur taught by Pujya Swamiji and Swamini Brahmaprakasananda.

He has an undergraduate degree in engineering and masters in business and worked for many years prior to taking to a full-time study of Vedanta.

Topic: The teaching of the Gita

Swamiji will introduce the subject matter of the Bhagavad Gita, its relevance and importance to human beings at all times and places and unfold the teaching of the Bhagavad Gita.
